

I am appalled that Sinclair Broadcasting will be permitted to air a partisan smear campaign against Senator Kerry just days before the election.

Sinclair is a steward of the public airways, and as such, must be responsible and serve the public interest. This is clearly in violation of public interest. Will Sinclair air a Kerry-campaign rebuttal to this film? Of course not.

This is an example of a media conglomerate not serving the public interest.